

Bad Words

Understanding the Impact of 'Bad Words' on Your CV - Why Avoid Them? In the context of a Curriculum Vitae (CV), 'bad words' are words to be avoided due to their negative impact on employers' perceptions. Avoiding these words is essential because they can: Convey negativity, undermining your confidence. Mask your achievements with a job description-like feel. Make your CV appear generic when overused phrases are used. Lead to redundancy and reduced engagement. Lack specificity, leaving room for ambiguity. Damage credibility when exaggerated language is used. Distract with irrelevant information. Confuse with industry-specific jargon. Suggest carelessness with typos and errors. Undermine professionalism with informal language. Raise ethical and legal concerns when biased terms are present. To create an effective CV, focus on positive, specific, and professional language while avoiding these 'bad words.' This approach ensures a strong, positive impression on potential employers.
